Located on a promontory overlooking the blue of the Atlantic Ocean, Pestana Tropicco is a comfortable hotel that is renowned for boasting one of the best restaurants anywhere in Cape Verde. The hotel is perfectly positioned for exploring the heart of the old city of the capital Praia, accessed via a short ride up the hill. Here you'll encounter colourful colonial architecture and bustling squares, while back beside the hotel, you'll discover the dark sands of Prainha Beach.

In the hotel itself, guests will find the rooms set over two floors, all of which enjoy sea or pool-facing views. The large pool and terrace area is the focal point of the hotel, providing a wonderful spot to soak up the sunshine and recharge your batteries after a busy day excursion. In addition to this, you'll have some fantastic meals to look forward to courtesy of the excellent restaurant Alex, serving up sublime Cape Verdean, Portuguese and international dishes.
