Standard Room

A small, simple, family-run hotel which is blessed by a collection of fantastic views, defined by the breathtaking surrounding scenery of mountains and verdant green landscapes; Quinta da Montanha promises a peaceful retreat. The hotel is also recognised as an excellent base for walkers, as well as a great addition to an island-hopping itinerary, while its restaurant serves delicious traditional dishes that source home-grown ingredients.

Built on a hillside of inland Santiago, 24km from the capital Praia, this is a hotel that encapsulates tranquillity on one hand, and adventure on the other. Combine relaxing on the recently improved rooftop terrace and soaking up the vistas with getting out and about on the walking trails from the hotel. There are many excellent walking tours you can enjoy from Quinta da Montanha, allowing you to soak up the stunning scenery that inland Santiago showcases.

Quinta's location is quite remote, so we recommend maximum stays of three or four nights and to consider upgrading to half-board.

WHAT WE LOVE

- The owner, Lindorfo, and his staff are extremely friendly; it often feels like you're visiting friends in a rural retreat.
- The views from the hotel are quite simply stunning. Lush green mountains, birds soaring, farming immersed into the hillsides and simple local life define the surroundings.

GOOD TO KNOW

- It's possible to walk directly from Quinta da Montanha to the top of Pico da Antónia, standing 1,394m high, via a hike of about six hours.
