Hotel Pontão is a friendly hotel situated in the centre of Santa Maria, offering attractive accommodation for both couples and single travellers alike.

Over the past few seasons, this hotel has undergone several improvements, including refurbishment to rooms and public areas. This provides a fresh and contemporary look, along with improved levels of comfort, giving customers an excellent base for a beach holiday in Sal. Ideally located close to the central square with its growing choice of busy restaurants and bars, this hotel is the perfect choice for those wanting to sample the different cuisine options at hand and spend their evenings taking in the local ambience.

Surrounding a central pool, the guest rooms are spacious and decorated in a smart, modern style providing ample comfort for holiday-makers.

A 10-minute stroll away is Santa Maria's stunning beach, where beautiful turquoise waters lap at soft golden sands, and you'll also discover an interesting pier, which each day comes alive with the local fishermen bringing in their catch of the day.
