BOARD BASIS: ALL-INCLUSIVE

Boasting a remarkable location overlooking one of the finest beaches in the whole of Cape Verde, the Iberostar Club Boa Vista promises an unforgettable stay amid the coastal beauty of this alluring island. Such is the philosophy of the reputed Iberostar group, you can expect an excellent standard of facilities and service throughout your stay, as well as an attractive and appealing presentation throughout the grounds, filled with palms and flowering plants.

The rooms are set over a variety of levels and are accessed via cobbled pathways which spread throughout the grounds, leading holiday-makers to their spacious, comfortable and well-equipped bedrooms. Outside and upon exploring the grounds, guests are likely to be drawn to the inviting pool area, enjoying some remarkable beach views from its elevated position. It's also here that you'll encounter the neighbouring buffet restaurant, Belvedere, as well as the pool bar, Palapa, both promising to keep you refreshed and fed during your stay. You can achieve further relaxation by indulging in the diverse offerings of the hotel's spa, opting for one of its rejuvenating beauty treatments, or why not just laze back and enjoy the personal feel that makes the Iberostar so rewarding?

OUR GUEST'S OPINION...

“Super holiday, great location, fabulous weather and a good choice of excursions to see and learn something of the culture of the island. Absolute bliss!”

Mrs Roberts

WHAT WE LOVE

- Its excellent location on Praia de Chaves – the fabulous, picture-postcard white sands stretch as far as the eye can see and provide endless strolls in the sunshine.
- Indulging in one of the many cocktail choices at the Palapa pool bar whilst enjoying the amazing sunset.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Steep slopes and steps, plus cobbled pathways make this hotel unsuitable for the less mobile.
- Book yourself an excursion at your welcome meeting and get out and see the island. Half and full-day tours provide a real flavour of what Boa Vista has to offer.
