A strikingly bright property that perfectly encapsulates the vibrancy of Cape Verde, you'll encounter Pensão Bela Sombra in the heart of Ribeira Brava, right in the centre of the island of São Nicolau. Such is the convenience of Bela Sombra's location, guests will find themselves on the doorstep of both the island's intriguing capital and the stunning mountainous landscapes that make São Nicolau so breathtakingly beautiful.

The hotel's simple rooms are comfortable and well presented, while the top floor balcony affords magnificent views of the verdant, green mountains that promise adventure and exploration to guests hoping to get active during their stay. With some great walking routes and guided walking tours on offer, you'll find that Bela Sombra is ideal for doing just that. You can also eat in the hotel's good restaurant, though many guests will be drawn to the superb Cape Verdean cuisine on offer when eating out in the small town.

WHAT WE LOVE

- You can explore São Nicolau from your doorstep, heading deep into the valley within a 15-minute walk.

GOOD TO KNOW

- This is a good value, simple pension where English speaking may be limited as well as reception opening hours.
- São Nicolau's landscape is very diverse, varying from one side of the island to the other. Make sure you don't miss Carberinho, Monte Gordo and the Valley of Ribeira Prata.
