

La Maison de Violette & Casa di Sole

CHARACTER COTTAGES WITH PRIVATE POOL | VINEYARD AND BEACHES NEARBY

Immersed in the Corsican countryside in the small hamlet of Lecci and situated around the corner from each other, la Maison de Violette and Casa di Sole have been lovingly decorated by the owner Violette who has used warm colours and many personal touches to give the houses a real home-from-home feeling. She has also arranged them in a traditional French farm cottage style with antique furnishing, tongue-and-groove ceiling and exposed beams overhead.

Each house has its own private terrace and swimming pool area bathed in dappled sunshine from the surrounding mature flowering plants and olive trees that are over a hundred years old. Literally carved out of ancient rocks and woodland, these delightful hideaways have the feel of secluded lookout posts. They are private and peaceful enough to provide an all-day retreat if you wish, though you're spoiled for choice when it comes to local beaches, with half a dozen wonderful options nearby. Even closer (almost at the end of the driveway in fact) is Corsica's most acclaimed vineyard, Domaine Torracia, whose award-winning wines provide the perfect complement to this idyllic location.

Porto Vecchio is also within easy reach where you'll find an extensive choice of eateries as well as an attractive harbour and picturesque citadel. And if you're feeling energetic and looking for the ultimate buzz, you can speak to the owners who live nearby and who run a canyoning company; they offer a choice of day trips along the beautiful rivers and waterfalls of Purcaraccia, Pulischellu and Vaca.

“A very pretty house that was exquisitely furnished. The pool was close and perfect. We loved the predominantly French feel to the holiday.”
