Villa Bumortu

INCREDIBLE PANORAMIC VIEWS | MODERN COMFORT | RECENTLY BUILT

Recently built and offering incredible views across the Gulf of Valinco as well as remarkable sunsets, Villa Bumortu is a gem on Corsica's west coast.

One of the key features of this modern, light and airy villa is its high vantage point, affording some of the best vistas found from any property on the island. The view across to the bay is almost a mainstay throughout the entire property, given the living area's bay windows which peer out to the blue ocean and verdant distant hills. Relaxing here is an effortless task.

Inside you'll enjoy crisp, clean and contemporary features throughout, with a modern kitchen combined with sleek design in furnishings and further décor across the other rooms of the property. The villa sleeps four guests, equipped with two bedrooms that are both en-suite, with shiny and modern facilities and artwork. Outside of the villa, guests can make the most of a particularly inviting swimming pool, ideally positioned for enjoying those mesmerising views as you soak amid the heat of the day.

If you fancy getting out and about during your stay, there are numerous locations and attractions to consider. Olmeto with its traditional eateries is just over 3km away, while many nearby beaches, as well as the bustling quayside of Propriano, are also in easy reach of Villa Bumortu.

Due to the horizontal railings along the terrace, this property may be unsuitable for young children.
