Casa di l'Olivu

Casa di l'Olivu

Situated down a peaceful country lane amongst mature olive trees and set in the same grounds as Villa Bicu Rossu (page 49), Casa di l'Olivu and Casa di Pruno offer a tranquil countryside retreat whilst not being far from the main towns and beaches of the south coast.

Both villas have been thoughtfully designed with the same layout and attention to detail, and each villa nestles within its own private garden complete with an inviting pool and a superb summer kitchen – the perfect setting for outdoor Mediterranean living. The properties are arranged on one floor with an open-plan living/dining room, a well-equipped kitchen area, two spacious bedrooms, a contemporary shower room and a separate wc. Decorated in neutral shades, both villas have a warm and welcoming feel with comfort being a key theme. When you can eventually tear yourself away, the towns of Porto Vecchio and Bonifacio are well worth a visit and only around 15 minutes' drive away. There's also a wide choice of stunning beaches in the area whether you fancy visiting the famous Palombaggia and Santa Giulia sands or exploring the unspoilt coves of Figari bay. Casa di l'Olivu and Casa di Pruno are charming properties and are ideally positioned to explore the delights l'Extrême Sud region has to offer.
